Christ Church Episcopal in Glen Allen, Virginia, a parish of the Episcopal Diocese of Virginia, seeks a full-time Director of Youth Ministry

Christ Church is seeking a qualified person who is called to join our staff as full-time Director of Youth Ministry in the summer of 2025 to share in the ministry and vision of our parish. This full-time position is responsible for the ministry with our 6th through 12th grade youth (middle and high school) with an emphasis of fostering inclusive, Christian community; forming and guiding young disciples; and supporting the identity of our youth as beloved children of God. This position joins a passionate, supportive, and collaborative staff comprised of clergy and lay-ministers. Christ Church does not discriminate against any applicant for employment because of religion, race, age, sex, disability, or national origin.

Christ Church's Director of Youth Ministry will:

- Build and foster healthy relationships with the youth (and their families) of Christ Church
- Envision, plan, and lead weekly and seasonal formation offerings and programs that support the spiritual vision and mission of Christ Church
- Lead and prepare the Confirmation class
- Connect youth to the life of the parish, promoting their place as full members of Christ Church
- Plan and lead summer mission trips and weekend retreats
- Partner with the Youth Ministry Team and other key volunteers
- Partner with senior staff in key areas such as adult & children's formation, pastoral care, missions, worship, parish administration and communications
- Faithfully oversee the youth ministry budget
- Report to the Minister to Families and the Rector

Minimum Qualifications & Key Skills:

- 4-year college degree, 3+ years of experience or Masters of Divinity
- Mature person of faith with an appreciation for and understanding of Scripture, theology, and the Episcopal Church.
- Strong organizational and communication skills

Starting salary is $50,000 and full benefits including health insurance and contributions to the Lay Pension Program of the Church.

Please submit a résumé and a cover letter addressed to Adam Williams, Minister to Families (a.williams@ccerva.org). Applications will be reviewed upon receipt, position to start July 1, 2025.
