

Planned giving Bulletin blurbs – Wills

- Have you made your will?

About 70% of Americans have no will. Of those that do, about 70% have outdated wills. Without a will the State will 'make' one for you and you may not be happy with the results. Now is a great time to make a new or updated will. It's easy to get started. - Planned Giving Resources

The Diocese of Virginia makes available planned giving information for all individuals and congregations of the Diocese – www.dvagiving.org has a wealth of resources including the free Planning Your Legacy wills guide.

- What footprints will you leave behind?

Everyone leaves behind footprints. They're made by the positive impressions our lives leave on others. Thoughtful estate planning and making a will are means that we have to make footprints that help others recall our values.

One way to leave a thoughtful footprint is to sign a new or updated will. To request a copy of your free Planning Your Legacy wills guide, send your address in an email to Stephanie Gurnsey Higgins, Minister for Diocesan Development and Congregational Giving - shiggins@thediocese.net.
